Whitehall, January 16.

THE following Addreſſes having been tranſmitted to his Grace the Duke of Dorſet, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, have by him been preſented to his Majeſty, who was pleaſed to receive the ſame very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The moſt humble Addreſs of the Merchants, Traders and Citizens of the City of Dublin.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Merchants, Traders, and Citizens of your faithful City of Dublin, beg Leave, in the moſt ſincere Manner, to blend our Joy with that of our Fellow-Subjects, for your Majeſty's ſafe Return to your Britiſh Dominions.

Your Majeſty's extenſive Care of the Liberties and Tranquility of Europe, in Oppoſition to the ambitious Views of other Princes, who graſp at Dominion rather than true Glory, and your Benevolence to Mankind, which are the Conſolation of your Subjects during your Majeſty's Abſence, make your Return more glorious and joyful to your faithful People, who muſt love and admire a Prince whom the World admires; a Prince, who, far from borrowing Luſtre, daily gives it to his Crown, and lives but for his People and Mankind.

From ſuch unwearied Application to the publick Service, we are encouraged to hope your Majeſty will one Day take into your gracious Conſideration the Caſe of this great Metropolis, and the Adminiſtration thereof; that, when After-Ages ſhall admire the Annals of this Reign, they may conclude no Action was too great for your Majeſty's Magnanimity to undertake, too tedious for your patient Vigilance to accompliſh, nor any Grievance of your Subjects too minute for your Enquiry and Redreſs.

We beg Leave to conclude this our humble Addreſs with Aſſurances of our Loyalty and unſhaken Fidelity to your Royal Perſon and your illuſtrious Houſe, of our ſteady Attachment to the preſent happy Eſtabliſhment, and with ſincere Prayers for your private Happineſs, for the Proſperity of your Kingdoms, and the future Glory of your Reign.

[Price Two-Pence.]

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Sheriffs, and Commonalty of the City of Corke.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects humbly beg Leave to offer to your Majeſty, with joyful Hearts, our moſt ſincere Congratulations on your ſafe and happy Return to your Majeſty's Britiſh Dominions.

Your Majeſty's conſtant Paternal Regards to your People, and the many invaluable Bleſſings, flowing from thence, enjoyed by them during the whole Courſe of your Majeſty's moſt gracious and auſpicious Reign, have filled their Minds with the deepeſt Senſe of moſt dutiful Gratitude, and inflamed their Hearts with the moſt ardent Deſires for the Safety and Welfare of your Majeſty's moſt ſacred Perſon.

And we moſt humbly aſſure your Majeſty, that our conſtant Supplications to the Almighty King of Kings are and ſhall be to preſerve your Majeſty in all Proſperity, long and many Years to rule over us and your Kingdoms; and when it ſhall pleaſe Divine Providence to take from us ſo ineſtimable a Favour, that we may never want one of your Royal and Illuſtrious Deſcendants to govern over us and our latest Poſterity.

In Teſtimony whereof we have cauſed the Common Seal of the ſaid City of Corke to be hereunto affixed, this Eighth Day of December, One thouſand ſeven hundred and fifty-two.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Bayliffs, Aldermen, Burgeſſes and Commons of the Town of Youghall in the Kingdom of Ireland.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and truly loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Bayliffs, Aldermen, Burgeſſes and Commons of your ancient and loyal Town of Youghall in Court of D'Oyer Hundred aſſembled, humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty on your ſafe Return to your Britiſh Dominions, and with Joy to expreſs the Satisfaction we derive from the ſame.

We

We want Words to declare the grateful Senſe we have of your Majeſty's moſt mild and auſpicious Government. Permit us, Sir, to aſſure your Majeſty, that it ſhall be our conſtant Prayer, that your Majeſty's Reign may be long over us, a free, grateful and obedient People, and that the Sceptre of theſe Kingdoms may not depart from your illuſtrious Houſe, but always be ſwayed by your Royal Deſcendants, and that they may inherit the numberleſs Virtues which adorn your ſacred Majeſty.

In Teſtimony whereof we have cauſed the Seal of this Corporation to be hereunto affixed this Seventh Day of December 1752.

Lisbon, Dec. 6. Their Majeſties came laſt Saturday from Belem to the Palace in this City, and were ſoon after followed by the whole Court. The Fleet bound for the Braſils, conſiſting of 18 Merchantmen, and ſix Men of War, on board of which are a great Number of Families, with Proviſions, Ammunition, and a Train of Artillery for our new Settlement in that Country, which was to put to Sea on the 2d Inſtant, is ſtill detained in this Port by the tempeſtuous Weather we have had here ever ſince the End of laſt Month. The King has lately made ſeveral new Regulations to ſhorten the Proceedings at Law.

Stutgard, Dec. 9. The Duke of Wirtemberg, our Sovereign, having lately ordered two new Regiments of Foot to be raiſed; and his Serene Highneſs having given the Command thereof to the Baron de Spitznas, and to M. de Bock, Captain in his Guards, they are now actually enliſting Men to compleat the ſaid two Regiments.

Leghorn, Dec. 10. We are informed by the Maſters of a Ship lately arrived here from the Coaſt of Barbary, that a Tripolitan Corſair having taken a Swediſh Ship in the Sea of Alexandria, and conducted her home; the Bey, after examining into the Affair, had not only ordered the ſaid Swediſh Ship and Crew to be immediately releaſed, but had likewiſe ordered Reſtitution to be made to the Maſter for all the Goods that had been taken out of her.

Petersbourg, Dec. 15. The Empreſs's Departure for Moſcow is fixed for the 26th Inſtant. A few Days ago her Imperial Majeſty appointed M. de Nepluef, Governor of Orenbourg, to be one of her Privy Council; and at the ſame Time the Chamberlains Sievers, Lalin and Schonikoff, were each preſented with a conſiderable Fief in Livonia. M. Henniger is appointed Vice Preſident of the College of Manufactures at Moſcow, a Place of great Honour and Profit.

Genoa, Dec. 19. An Expreſs arrived here on the 12th Inſtant from Baſtia with Advice, that the Marqueſs de Curſay, Commander of the French Troops in Corſica, was arreſted, by Order of the King his Maſter, and conducted to the Caſtle of Antibes; and that M. de Courcy, Colonel of the Regiment of Tournaiſis, is appointed Commander of the French Troops in his Room; which News is the more pleaſing to this Government, as there is a good Underſtanding between this new Commander, and the Marqueſs de Grimaldi, our Commiſſary General in that Iſland.

Hambourg, Dec. 29. We learn by our laſt Letters from Poland, that a contagious Diſtemper is lately broke out in Walachia and Moldavia; and that Count Branicky, General of the Crown Army, was no ſooner informed thereof, than he immediately gave Orders for a conſiderable Body of Troops to march and form a Line on the Frontiers of thoſe Provinces.

Bruſſels, Jan. 1. The Baron de Reiſchach, Envoy Extraordinary from their Imperial Majeſties to the States General of the United Provinces, who was lately oppointed to the important Poſt of Prime Miniſter at this Court, in the Room of the Marqueſs de Botta d'Adorno, arrived here Yeſterday Morning from the Hague, and ſoon after waited on his Serene Highneſs Prince Charles of Lorrain, and met with a gracious Reception. M. Dupuis, who went ſome Time ago to Namur, to take an Account of the Revenues of the Clergy, is arrived here from thence. The Conferences for ſettling the Barrier and Tariff, which have laid dormant for ſome Time, are going to be renewed.

Berlin, Jan. 2. The King, in order to encourage the ſetting up and carrying on all Sorts of Manufactures at Bernau, about three Miles from hence, has cauſed publick Notice to be given to his Subjects, and others, that in Caſe they will go and ſettle in that Town, they ſhall have their Freedoms thereof, beſides other conſiderable Advantages.

Hague, Jan. 9. The States of Holland and Weſtfrizeland will re-aſſemble on Wedneſday next; the Points upon which they are to deliberate, being already ſent to the reſpective Towns. We have received Advice from Maeſtricht, that M. de Slype, one of the Burgomaſters of that Town, died there on Friday laſt: And by Letters received here this Day from Haerlem we are informed of the Death of M. Crommelin, Lieutenant General of Foot in the Service of this Republick, and Commandant of Gertrudenbourg.

A General Meeting of the Truſtees for Making, Widening, and Keeping in Repair, ſeveral Roads in the ſeveral Pariſhes of Lambeth, Newington, St. George's Southwark, and Bermondſey, in the County of Surry, will be held at the Royal Oak at Vauxhall, on Saturday the 27th Day of January 1753, at Ten o'Clock in the Forenoon.
